ORDINANCE NO. 3479

CODE

AN ORDINANCE ADDING A NEW SECTION,
BC 5.08.618, FAILURE TO PROVIDE NAME
AND DATE OF BIRTH, AND AMENDING BC
5.08.800, PENALTIES, OF THE
BEAVERTON CODE.

WHEREAS, a peace officer may stop and detain a person for a violation offense for the purposes of investigation reasonably related to the violation offense, identification of the person and issuance of a citation to the person; and

WHEREAS, a peace officer may detain a person for such time as is reasonably necessary to investigate and verify the person's identity; and

WHEREAS, a person's identity is primarily verified by comparing a person's name with the person's date of birth; and

WHEREAS, a person's failure to provide any name or date of birth to a peace officer having probable cause to believe the person has committed a violation offense may result in the person's detention becoming unreasonably and needlessly time consuming; and

WHEREAS, the unreasonable and needless consumption of a peace officer's time poses a threat to the public's safety and welfare; now, therefore,

THE CITY OF BEAVERTON DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. BC 5.08.618, Failure to Provide Name and Date of Birth, is hereby added to the Beaverton Code and shall read as follows:
