

ORDINANCE NO. 4813

AN ORDINANCE ADDING BEAVERTON CODE CHAPTER 3.21 RELATING TO RESIDENTIAL TENANCIES, EXTENDING THE 60-DAY PROTECTION PERIOD IN SENATE BILL 278 (2021 REGULAR SESSION) TO 90 DAYS, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, the State of Oregon, Washington County, and the City of Beaverton have ongoing declarations of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, to address the impacts that COVID-19 has had on the community, the federal government, the State of Oregon and numerous local communities have imposed limitations on evictions as well as provided funding for rental assistance; and

WHEREAS, the State of Oregon extended statewide renter protections by enacting SB 278 during the 2021 Regular Session (which is referred to hereinafter as "Oregon Laws 2021, chapter 420," a copy of which is shown at Exhibit A). Oregon Laws 2021, chapter 420, provides in part that if a tenant provides a landlord with documentation that the tenant has applied for rental assistance, a landlord may not, for a period of sixty days: (1) deliver a termination notice for nonpayment; or (2) initiate or continue an action for possession based on a termination notice for non-payment; and

WHEREAS, there are currently approximately 1,048 Beaverton residents waiting for assistance from Washington County Emergency Rent Assistance, and it is expected that up to thousands more are waiting for assistance from the State's Emergency Rent Assistance, all of which has created a current backlog at the State and local level for rental assistance and that backlog is causing material delays beyond 60 days for rental assistance application approvals; and

WHEREAS, due to the backlog, individuals who have applied for rental assistance could face eviction if they do not receive approval before the 60-day period set in Senate Bill 278 expires; and

WHEREAS, Washington County adopted Ordinance No. 880, which extends the 60-day protection period in SB 278 to 90 days for unincorporated areas of the County, but the extension does not provide additional protection to renters who live within incorporated cities such as Beaverton; and

WHEREAS, historically, recovery from an economic downturn takes longer for Black, Indigenous, People of Color and marginalized communities, and these communities have faced disproportionate barriers to economic opportunities that allow them to pay rising rents and other housing costs. The pandemic has created additional obstacles for these communities, which will continue to exist beyond the lifting of public health restrictions and the statewide eviction moratorium; and

WHEREAS, extending the protection from eviction established by Oregon Laws 2021, Chapter 420, should ensure that providers of rental assistance will have sufficient time to process rent assistance applications, mitigating further disproportionate impacts of pandemic on Black, Indigenous and People of Color; and

WHEREAS, this ordinance does not relieve tenants of the obligation to pay rent, but instead is designed to provide sufficient time for both tenants and landlords to secure emergency financial assistance as provided by funding designed to respond to the economic impacts of the pandemic; and

WHEREAS, the ability to maintain housing during this pandemic is a public health imperative; and

WHEREAS, the City of Beaverton is committed to responding to the impacts of the pandemic; and

WHEREAS, this ordinance is necessary to avoid mass evictions for non-payment of rent directly attributed to the lingering impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, to promote housing stability, and to protect the health and safety of community members in the City of Beaverton; now therefore.

THE CITY OF BEAVERTON ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 5. The sections and subsections of this ordinance are severable. If any part of this ordinance is held unconstitutional or otherwise invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining parts shall remain in full force and effect unless:

- A. The remaining parts are so essentially and inseparably connected with and dependent upon the unconstitutional or invalid part that it is apparent that the remaining parts would not have been enacted without the unconstitutional or invalid part; or
